

Contributing Factors in Florida Fatal Car Crashes

According to data from the Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT), fatal car crashes are often linked to a combination of driver behavior, age-related risk factors, and impairment.

2,080 Total Fatal Crashes | 2,350 Fatalities

Age-Related Factors

Percentage of total fatalities

- Drivers ages 25-64
- Drivers under 25
- Drivers age 65 and older

Impairment Factors

Percentage of total fatalities

- Alcohol-related crashes
- Drug-related crashes
- Distracted or inattentive driving

Vehicle Factors

Percentage of total fatalities

- Motor vehicle accidents
- Motorcycle accidents
- Pedestrian accidents
- Bicycle accidents